

Adventures

Not all who wander are lost Amy Ellis

Growing up in the Pacific Northwest left me with a deep affection for old-growth trees and the moss that grows on the north side of them. I recently visited Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks with my children and husband, and I was once again drawn to the patterns in the bark and the light filtering through the trees. Adventures is a graphic collection of the elements I see in these grand places. Make sure to dress warm, use a map and create lots of memories as your Adventures unfold!
