STATE FLOWERSCAPE

By TURN-OF-THE-CENTURIES

We might be “united”, but we love celebrating our individuality by designating symbols of our statehood. Naming a state flower began more than a century ago when Minnesota named the Pink & White Lady’s Slipper as its flower in 1893.

This limited collection names and depicts each of the Fifty State Flowers, showcasing some of them on a map panel that can be framed or made into a pillow, bag or used as a center medallion in a quilt.
