

Woodland Winter

Deb Strain

For years, our family lived in a Saltbox home in the woods. Although every season brought its own beauty, winter was by far the most wonderful. The peace and quiet of walking among the trees when the snow was falling, was truly magical! If you watched closely and were lucky, glimpses of woodland animals could be seen amongst the pines. Deer, racoon, rabbits, cardinals, chickadees, owls and even a family of fox, visited the woods throughout the year. Woodland Winter shares those magical moments of winter in the woods and would be perfect for your next wintry project for your home!
